

AGFD FELLOW Award

AGFD Fellows are recognized for their outstanding scientific contributions to the field of agricultural and food chemistry

The award recognizes the application of chemistry to improve the supply, safety, and/or quality of food and agricultural products. A significant portion of the research should have been reported in ACS journals and books and/or at Divisional symposia. For industrial chemists, who may be discouraged or prohibited from publishing, qualification criteria might include: patents, product launches, process enhancements, reports & presentations. The nominee must have been a member of ACS and the Division for at least the preceding five years. Nominations must be made by an AGFD Fellow.

New AGFD Fellows receive an engraved plaque at the ACS Fall Meeting.

Nomination Package:

- Letter of nomination
- 2-4 letters of support from AGFD Fellows
- Brief summary of nominee's research
- Brief curriculum vitae
- Up-to-date publication list highlighting ACS publication record
- There is no nomination form
- The nominations are reviewed by a committee consisting of AGFD Fellows.
